INSTRUCTIONS FOR ORGANIZATION

Democrats who favor the principles of the Honest Money League are urged to aid in the immediate organization of auxiliary leagues wherever practicable. This should be done either by a call for a meeting or by circulation of the declaration of principles, and as soon as a sufficient number of signatures are obtained, a permanent organization can be easily effected.

The constitution of the county leagues provides (with the consent of the county league) for the organization of branch leagues within said county. In this manner branch leagues may be organized in every township in the county, the presidents of the respective branch leagues being ex-officio vice-presidents of the county league, while the president of the county league is ex-officio a vice-president of the state league.

It will be seen that by this method a thorough organization of honest money democrats throughout the state is provided for, and this is just what is contemplated by the Honest Money League.

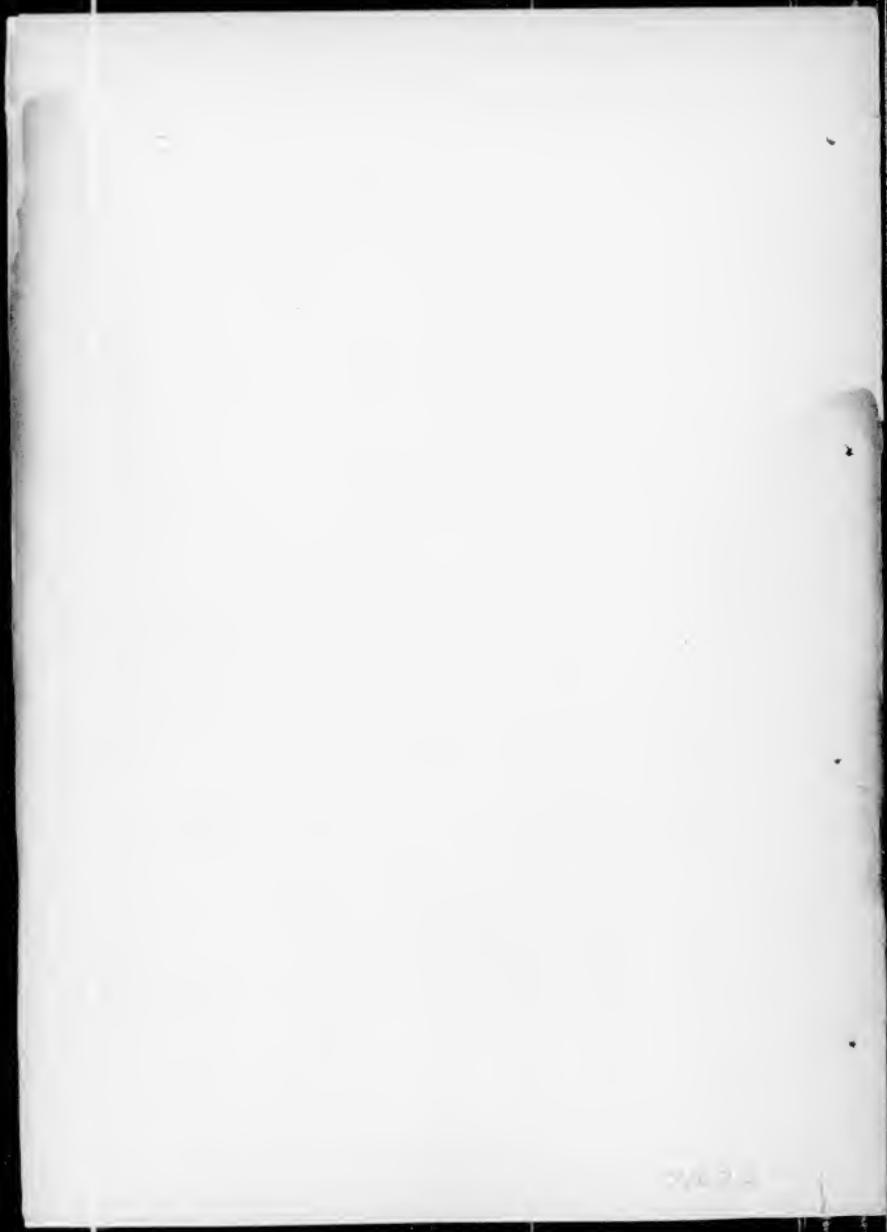

Immediately upon the organization of an auxiliary league, the secretary thereof should transmit to the state league headquarters at Chicago, a complete list of officers and members of said auxiliary league, together with their postoffice address. Whenever a branch league is organized the secretary of said branch league should in the same manner transmit a list of officers and members thereof to the secretary of the county league, who should mail a copy of the same to the secretary of the state league. In this manner only can a thorough organization be had and maintained and the state league enabled to distribute literature and instructions for conducting a vigorous honest money campaign.

It is recommended by the committee on state organization that as soon as a county league is organized steps be taken to organize branch leagues in the towns of the county wherever practicable. Now is the time to organize.

County leagues are requested to make requisitions upon the secretary of the state league for copies of constitutions, instructions and membership rolls whenever needed for the purpose of organizing branch leagues. These should be placed in the hands of persons fully alive to the importance of the work and competent to carry out the objects of the movement.

The secretaries of auxiliary and branch leagues are also instructed to forward to the state league headquarters, from time to time, the names and postoffice addresses of new members, together with such other information as may be deemed of interest to the organization.
